Adventure Photography

October 18, 2008 – January 25, 2009

Opening Reception: October 17 from 7 – 9 pm

For over one hundred years photography has been used to document and record people's travels and adventures in the Canadian Rockies. This exhibition of contemporary photographs shows a diversity of activities, from paragliding to hiking to ice climbing. These images capture the passion and interaction with the mountains by men and women who enjoy playing and working in the Rockies.
